She was a top producing Realtor, and an instructor of Real Estate Marketing and Brokerage for the University of Houston.

Sue has been a member of WBEA since 2001. She is currently serving on the WBEA Board of Directors and is the Forum Chairperson. Sue also represents WBEA on the national WBENC Forum Governing Board. Sue has also served on the Board of Directors for the National Speakers

Association, Houston Realtors Association, and Texas Realtors Association. She is a member of the National Speakers Association, Meeting Planners International and is a life time member of the Texas Realtors Teachers Association.

Sue has developed S.O.S... the Simple Organization System™. This provides a fast, simple and logical method to locate information needed at a moments notice and is developed to ensure easy implementation. The organization system also provides a method for anyone in the company to locate information. It reduces the stress level and it creates a better environment conducive to accomplishing tasks. Be prepared for positive results!

As a speaker, Sue's messages are inspirational, motivational, and informative, delivered with an enthusiasm that is both genuine and contagious. Sue is dedicated to "cleaning up America's businesses" through organizational and time management tactics. Sue also excels at helping others develop a clearly-focused strategic plan aimed at bottom-line results through increased productivity and profitability.

Sue has made a difference in many companies such as General Dynamics, The Dow Chemical Company, KBR, GlaxoSmithKline, Nexus Health Systems, Prudential Real Estate, and Century 21.
